CIRCULAR: Important Notification Regarding Language Policy for Unit Test-1 (UT-1)

Dear Parents,

Greetings from MPS International!

Please take note of the following crucial updates regarding the language policy and examination structure for the upcoming Unit Test-1 (UT-1) for Class VI students.

As per the latest directives from CBSE, starting this academic session 2026-27, a Three-Language Policy is being adopted specifically for Class VI. The language distribution will be as follows:

- Language 1 (R1): English
- Language 2 (R2): Hindi
- Language 3 (R3): Sanskrit

Examination Guidelines for R3 (Sanskrit)

The examination for the third language (R3 – Sanskrit) will be conducted based on the following student categories:

For Students Who Have Opted for French: The Sanskrit (R3) examination will be conducted internally. French will be continued as a separate club but not a subject. A certificate will also be provided to the French Club students by the end of the session.

Please be assured that the school closely monitors regulatory updates. If CBSE issues any revised guidelines regarding the language policy in the future, necessary changes will be implemented and communicated to you accordingly.

We request you to guide your ward to prepare for the examinations based on these guidelines.

Thank you for your continued cooperation and support.

Regards,

(Manju Sharma)
